HOME AND SCHOOL

A gathering of about sixty-five gathered in the Memorial Hall Monday evening—attracted by the previously advertised talk and film on Cancer and its prevention.

Rev. D. A. Ford presided. Following the reading of the minutes by Mrs. Ridsden it was voted to present the scholarship to the Grade 9 winners at the next meeting which will be held in the High School, November 25.

The President then called on Mr. Pettinger, Secretary of the Alberta Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society to give an address.

Mr. Pettinger is a fluent and interesting speaker, and holds the closest interest of his hearers.

The speaker stated the appalling number of deaths in Canada as 1400, 50% of which could have been prevented if medical aid had been sought in time.

The programme of the C.C.S. is one of education—service and research. It is approved by the Alberta Department of Health and the Medical Society.

Cancer service has been offered by the Department of Health by establishing two clinics in Calgary and two in Edmonton whereby persons may receive free examination after first being recommended by their local doctor as entitled to this treatment. The fee for first examination being paid to the local doctor.

The Department of Health has also established Cancer Dressing Station See Page 5, HOME & SCHOOL

J. SCHEER SCORES IN POTATO DAY

Members of the Strathmore Potato Club held an achievement day on Wednesday in the Memorial Room of the United Church, when 12 samples were prepared and exhibited. During the afternoon the members received instructional lectures from P. D. Hargreaves, District Agriculturist from Brooks. During his talk, Mr. Hargreaves emphasized the advisability of close grading, and illustrated his talk with samples collected for demonstration purposes. Four samples were brought from Brooks for judging during the day.

Potatoes from this area illustrated the best possible grades for commercial potatoes, and tolerances within grades were explained.

Form Auto, Trade Ass'n

Called together under the auspices of the Automotive Trade Association, some fifteen garage-men from around the Strathmore area met together in the Town Hall on Tuesday night to discuss methods of applying the new orders regulating hours of work issued by the provincial government and at the same time continuing to give the travelling public as good service as is possible. For most garage-men employing men, the orders have meant drastic shifting of hours in order to prolong the time in which they can offer service.

Present at the meeting were Messrs. E. C. Griffiths, V. Pederson, P. C. Geeraert, of Rockyford, M. E. Hansen, E. Westergaard and T. Fraser of

NEWS OMITTED

The Standard is sorry that quite a bit of news was left out of this week's paper, and will have to be held over until next time. This was entirely due to the limitations imposed by such factors as the space to start with, the amount of material, and the limited amount of squeezing which is possible. Included in this material are several stories of district notes, the reserve army, the church supper at Carseland, etc. These will all appear next week.

Form C.Y.O.

At a meeting of the young people of Sacred Heart Parish on Tuesday evening, it was decided to form a branch of the Catholic Youth Organization in Strathmore. Officers were elected as follows:

President, Miss Jean Backs; Vice-President, Mr. Bill Traeder; Secretary, Miss Helen Keeler. Other members of the executive are John Van Verdegem, Anton Bartelen, Bill Keeler, Andrew Kieny.

Tentative plans were made for a trip to Drumheller branch of the C.Y.O.

Standard, R. H. Blue, George. Winters of Langdon Corner, C. W. Gibson, C. E. Cote, N. Lennox, of Carseland, J. Lepp of Nakama, H. Harwood, K. Baldwin, O. O. Donly and N. Jones of Strathmore, and A. Grant of Gleichen Corner.

Grand Matron Visits Standard

On Thursday Evening, October 24th Standard Chapter No. 76, Order of the Eastern Star, had the honor of an official visit from Mrs. Elizabeth Richard, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Alberta.

Mrs. Ada Fletcher, Worthy Matron, presided at the Meeting. She was assisted by Charles Madsen, Associate Patron of Standard Chapter. Many distinguished visitors were present, including the following: Past Grand Matrons, Mrs. Jennie Blair, Mrs. Helen P. McPhee, Mrs. Alice Sparling — Past Grand Patrons were, Sam J. Blair, and E. A. Wazler. Also present were Grand Associate Matrons, Mrs. Mary Keohane, Grand Treasurer, Kathleen Young, Grand Associate Patron Harry Chabney and Grand Sentinel, William Young.

Mr. Hargreaves suggested that in growing potatoes under the best possible conditions, growers could expect to have at least 25% of potatoes discarded for feed purposes; this 25% being caused by bruising, mechanical injury such as off-types he explained. After judging the samples and giving lectures to the members, Mr. Hargreaves complimented them on the quality of the exhibits shown, stating that it was one of the best prepared exhibits he had been privileged to judge.

Only one entry was criticized. 1. John Scheer. 2. Rowe Harvey. 3. David Drummond. 4. Gladys Cormack. First and Second Prize entries will be sent to Edmonton shortly to be placed in the Provincial competition.

Visitors from Hussar and Rockyford Chapters were welcomed.

During the evening, Miss Doris Fletcher and Mrs. Vivian Larsen were initiated. Later, supper was served in the K. P. Hall, where Autumn foliage and berries were used to decorate the tables. Maple and Oak leaves, ivy leaves, cedar spray - bayberries and milk weed pods, which had been sent from Ontario for the occasion, were mingled with the rich tones of purple grapes, red apples and mountain ash berries, to create a very effective decorative note. Tall yellow tapers, and a brown wicker basket of bronze and yellow baby mums, completed the idea of Autumn tones and colors.

A program of toasts and speeches followed the supper and brought to a close a very memorable evening for Standard Chapter.

CROWDS AT LOUNSBURY GOLDEN WEDDING

There was a jolly gathering of relatives friends and well wishers of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lounsbury at the hall on Tuesday evening. The occasion was the celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

The hall was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers and the long tables looked very attractive in white. A community supper was served with the bride and groom and fifty years seated at the head table with their children and grand children. After supper with Mr. George Thurston as master of ceremonies, a short program followed, with musical selections by Mrs. Spence Hughes, Rev. Ford, Mrs. Delores Morgan, Lorraine Hendricks and Dr. J. Giffen.

Mr. Thurston with a few well chosen words, presented the happy couple with a radio as a token of affection from the community. Russell Morgan then made a little speech for the grandchildren and proffered a pair of Hudson Bay blankets with their love and good wishes.

The twins, (Mrs. Fred Hilton and Mrs. Ted McConnell of Orange, California,) then presented their parents with a case of silver from their five daughters and families.

Dancing lasted to an early hour and everyone voted it a very pleasant occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lounsbury were married in Nokomis, Illinois in 1896 and for a time live in N. Dakota, coming to High River district in 1914. They came to Nightingale in 1917 and proved themselves a great asset to the community. They have made their home in Strathmore the past few years, but Nightingale enjoyed the privilege of celebrating their golden wedding and wish them many more years of happiness.

Those coming from a distance to be present are Mr. and Mrs. Ted McConnell of Orange Valley, California, Mrs. Alice Sanders of High River and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith of Calgary.

Additions To Strathmore

STROLLING IN Strathmore one day recently in perhaps a rather reminiscent mood, we felt a Rip Van Winkle of only five years — not the proverbial twenty years — would open his eyes widely to note the changes in homes and buildings that have taken place during the last few years.

Opposite the Standard Office, a well built modern stucco garage and service station, with tidy house adjoining has replaced the vacant lot that was once the landing place for all sorts of vehicles, some cast away, some crippled, and some awaiting a new owner and further use.

This pleasant transformation has been wrought under the supervision and ownership of Mr. O. O. Donily. It is a restful sight to look out upon. Further on a steam laundry establishment is to replace the old landmark "The Chinese Laundry".

Around the corner Godfrey Brothers bought out the former Jack Taylor blacksmithing business and have added a bulk sales oil station.

Going on a street or two we turned the corner where a deep excavation predicts the coming of a good sized house; this the project of E. Naylor, a busily occupied carpenter.

We pass on further to see the large transformed house of T. E. H. Patterson with the smaller one opposite, and a pile of gravel nearby suggests the idea that someone else is planning to build in the not too distant future.

At the school grounds a tidy one room school has been brought in to relieve the congestion in over-crowded rooms.

Retracing our steps to Main Street we pass that winter haven for all Scotsmen — the curling rink which has replaced its weather beaten gray roof for a new suiting of white, insulation has also been extensively used and the "Throwers of Stones" are eagerly awaiting the day when the weatherman will give them "good ice" when all else is secondary to the "hew Roards" game.

Coming on up past the Bank Corner we see the little large hot house or conservatory added to Mr. Stollery's house which gives promise of some rare and lovely blooms next year.

Opposite we see the Siemen's Service Station taking shape rapidly.

Not many people in Strathmore today remember the days when the Bank of Commerce Building stood on the north west corner at the intersection of Main Street and 2nd Avenue. Later this building was removed to Stockford where it still serves the community as a financial institution and a great convenience to the people of the district.

For the several years past, the only landmark that remained of the erstwhile Strathmore Branch of the Bank of Commerce were the several sided stone foundation and the well which supplied the nearby townspeople with an abundance of good water. Now with the progress in keeping with this modern age Mr. Siemen is erecting a modern service station which will make an attractive corner, which for too long has been anything but a thing of beauty.

Apropos a further progressive step we would suggest that large barrels be placed at intervals on Main Street in which waste paper could be deposited, not blown hither and thither on windy days.

Passing up by the Memorial Hall we see the brightly stuccoed house of "Bill" Woodliffe that occupies a couple of lots, which up to now had been vacant.

Across the street is the attractive frame house of Mr. Hiebert largely built by himself.

And last but not least in sentimental valuation soon to be placed on the same street the house recently purchased by Mr. John MacKay which was formerly the Rectory for St. Michael's Church and has housed the Clergy of this diocese for many years.

Many memories of early years are associated with this compilation of lumber etc., but "all things pass", and this building too had passed the stage of necessary requirements, and the congregation of St. Michael's was fortunate indeed in securing so convenient and satisfactory a more adequate home for their rectory.

We congratulate them on their good fortune. The erstwhile rectory is expected to be moved from its present moorings in the near future and under the capable workmanship of Mr. MacKay we expect to see a tidy little home surrounded by pretty, colourful flowers when summer comes once again.

Is Free Democracy Worthwhile

THIS SEARCHING question is posed by the address made in Ottawa last week by Percy Philip — news reporter of great ability and culture who covered the peace conferences after two wars. Speaking on the subject "In search of Peace", Mr. Philip was certain that the recent peace conference was much more discouraging than that of 1919. The first conference was set in an atmosphere of hope and confidence and the belief that free democracy would become the way of the world.

The recent conference was a dog-fight from the beginning between different "systems" of government. Free democracy is maintained in only a few countries of the world and many countries with large population maintain that their authoritarian system, with only one political party allowed and where opposition to the government is considered treason, serves the masses of people better.

It is true that free democracy proved to be the better way in war time — proved by the valour of our sons in battle and the persistence, industry, and co-operation of our people at home. Free democracy not only played a large part in the defeat of an authoritarian state but supplied an impressive part of the weapons used by our own authoritarian allies. But can free democracy rise to the challenge of peace which often lacks the exciting stimulus of war? On the answer to that question depends our way of life and every single individual in Canada who values freedom can help give the answer. There is no certainty that our free method will last in a world where it is strongly opposed.

ARDENODE

by Mrs. H. S.

Mr. Jens Petersen left Saturday for Denmark where he hopes to spend the next four months, visiting with his parents. We wish him a happy reunion.

Mrs. T. Owens of Calgary was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. Hilton for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McConnel of Orange California are at present enjoying a week's holiday visiting their many relations and friends. They also will help to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Loundsbury's 50th wedding anniversary (Mrs. McConnel's parents).

as a public service and these are providing a great benefit to persons in need. They are established in Edmonton, Olds, Calgary and Lethbridge. A film entitled "Choose to Live" was a force full corroboration of what the Speaker had stated.

A program rendered by the following made pleasing interludes:—

Two recitations by Miss Wanda Dunkley, of Calgary and two songs by Miss Shirley Pritchard, accompanied by Mrs. Collard on the piano.

An amusing little Health Play by the pupils of Miss Skjelle's room, and a chorus by the High School Girls, led by Mrs. Polley concluded the program.

As a result of Mr. Pettinger's address—a motion by Mr. Crowther "That the Strathmore Home and School Association form a society to solicit aid and sponsor the efforts of the Canadian Cancer Society" was unanimously passed.

A very excellent Film "Man—One Family" was shown depicting the wisdom that would result if there were harmony among all the peoples of the world.

The lantern was ably handled by Mr. Jack Crellin.

It was a rather unique coincidence that the first item "The Road Side House" should tie in with the last—the one family.

HUSSAR

By Mrs. M. C. B.

Hussar, October 23rd: A fire swept through many acres of land, and destroyed several stacks of hay on Monday afternoon, north west of town. It started from the combine on G. Kaiser's place; and whipped by the strong wind, it nearly went wild. However under the many helpers that gathered after an afternoon of hard fighting, Herbie Kaiser, who fought the fire from the beginning, was nearly overcome by the smoke, and on the advice of Health Officer, Mrs. T. Burdett, was rushed to Bassano for treatment. Many acres of wheat were just beyond the place where the fire started. Harvesters, combines and threshing machines are very busy these days during the crop.

On Monday afternoon, a nice shower for Miss Ann C. Neilsen, a bride to be, was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Drinton. An interesting program was enjoyed. Appropriate songs by Mrs. Karl Knudsen, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. I. Montgomery, followed by an interesting contest, which was won by Mrs. T. Broom. Just before the lunch, Miss Neilsen was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts from her friends.

Best wishes and good luck to you both from us all in Langdon district.

THE CRACKER BARREL

By Political Ottawa

A FIGHTING ISSUE

It is becoming clear that the leading issue in Canada's home political scene will be the question of price and wage controls involving as it does such problems as (1) the extent of government's responsibility for the conduct of business whether it be business by publicly owned corporations, federal, provincial and municipal, business by corporations, by private individuals or by co-operatives; (2) the extent of the government's responsibility for the conduct of labour unions; (3) the extent of the government's responsibility to find markets, particularly for farm products but also for the products of mines, fisheries and forests. Public opinion will be the deciding factor in the issue and already there are signs of the lining up of forces.

The Government Side

Those who argue in favour of the government policy claim that it brings the greatest measure of economic freedom to the masses and stimulates the creative initiative of all and particularly of our young people. They point to the experience of the previous post war period of 1919 and the early 1920's and when the Conservative Party was in power and carried out the policy now advocated by the Progressive Conservatives. The real income of both farmer and labourer — measured in terms of the goods their dollars could buy — sank to a new low. This was quickly followed by a sharp reduction in the price of farm products and loss of jobs for labour, bringing hardship to all but particularly to our young people not yet well established in jobs or business.

From 1939 to date the cost of living in Canada has risen 25% which means that our dollar buys only 80¢ worth of goods. Between 1914 and 1919 the cost of living based on the same statistical formula rose 46% and by June, 1920 had reached a new high of 176, bringing the purchasing power of a dollar down to just below 60¢. Supporters of the Liberal policy also point to the present situation in the United States to show that removal of controls works extreme hardships on the masses of people.

The Opposition

The C.C.F. Party claim that controls should be taken off wages, refusing to admit that higher wages means higher prices for the goods purchased by farmer and labourer. It pins its faith to an emotional appeal against business and profits. The Social Credit Party contend that only the acceptance of their monetary theory can create maximum production and maximum consumption.

Many observers believe that the outcome of the struggle on this issue will decide the future prosperity and happiness of Canadians for a generation or more.

Trade

Plans for International Conference on world trade are rapidly taking shape, and indicate an awareness of the importance of trade to the peace of the world. Canada is particularly dependent on export markets and thinking Canadian realize the import-

FAIRPLAY

By Mrs. E. L. A.

Pioneer Passes at Fairplay

Mr. Henry O. Peterson, old timer of the district passed away at the age of 68 in a Calgary nursing home on October 22nd. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Peterson of Henderson, Ill.

Mr. Peterson came to the Fairplay district in the spring of 1909, where he took up farming and has resided since of getting markets now while the demand for our products is great. Channels of trade change slowly and markets obtained now will mean a great deal to our farmers and workers when goods are more plentiful and harder to sell.

Products of Canada's forests — wood products and paper take first place in export records for the first eight months of 1945. Agriculture and vegetable products come second and animals and animal products (including fish) come third. A large drop from the first 8 months of 1945 is shown by iron and its products due to the stoppage of munitions and war vehicles. The total of exports is one third less than the first 8 months of 1945 but 548 million dollars more than the total for 1939.

One million more persons are "gainfully employed" at this date than in 1939.

Experts consider that the physical reconversion of industry to peace time production is two thirds complete now after one year of peace.

Tax exemptions are higher, that is Canadians have larger exemptions than in Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand or United States. Further exemptions commence January 1, 1947.

He leaves to mourn his widow, Pearl, three sons and a daughter, George of Calgary, Allan of Lethbridge, Marvin at home and Mrs. Sandy Gerrard of Kneehill Valley, and five grandchildren, also two sisters and a brother at Henderson, Ill.

The funeral was held on Saturday, October 26th from Jaques funeral home, burial followed in Burnland Cemetery.

The pall bearers were Mr. J. VanderVelde, Mr. M. VanderVelde, Mr. A. VanderVelde, Mr. C. Anderson, Mr. J. Garlick, Mr. E. Albertson.

The sincere sympathy of his many friends was shown by the beautiful display of flowers covering the casket.

Relatives from distant points who attended the funeral of Mr. H. O. Peterson included his sister Miss Emma Peterson of Henderson, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holt and Mr. Gerrard of Kneehill Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Oxtoby of Innisfail; Mr. and Mrs. S. Gerrard of Kneehill Valley and Mr. Allan Peterson of Lethbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Fraser spent the weekend in Turner Valley, the guests of their son and daughter-in-law.

Mrs. Silkston and Dorothy Albertson motored to Edmonton over the week end.

Mrs. Peterson has moved to Calgary where she will reside during the winter months.

Dry Land Farming

We have always thought water was necessary to the successful growing of vegetables. However to disprove this we were shown carrots firm and large, corn perfectly filled out and a turnip weighing 1½ pounds grown in the garden of Mr. Dan Kisseque. This turnip too proved very good eating when cooked.

Mr. Kisseque says he hoes twice only in the season, and is particular as to the time of thinning out.

Form Trade, Auto Association

a local association of the A.T.A. the members present elected K. Baldwin of Strathmore president, E. C. Griffiths of Rockyford as vice president and N. Jones of Strathmore secretary.

At the same time it was decided that Mr. Baldwin should represent this newly formed organization at a convention to be held in Calgary November 11.

The intention of the group is if possible, to obtain provincial recognition of the group as comprising the dealers in this area, and then form a local Advisory Board, which may regulate practices prevailing with regard to garage operations in this area. Such practices would include hours of business, charges made the public and wages paid. It might also regulate business as to arrange for each garage in town to take turns staying open late hours for the convenience of the public.

One decided advantage of this feature would be that permission to perform emergency work on holidays or after hours could be obtained from the local board, thus saving the delay in applying to the Calgary advisory board for permission.

A further meeting of the executive is planned for November 13, in Strathmore.

Executive members elected were R. H. Blue, T. Fraser and N. Lennox.
